Disabled-Friendly Campus Policy

St Pauls Institute of Communication Education for Women is dedicated to fostering an inclusive and supportive environment for all individuals, including those with disabilities. This Disabled-Friendly Campus Policy outlines the institution's commitment to providing accessible facilities, services, and support to ensure the full participation and integration of persons with disabilities into all aspects of academic and campus life.

- All new construction and renovation projects will adhere to universal design principles to ensure accessibility.
- Campus facilities, including classrooms, labs, restrooms, and common areas, will be designed to accommodate individuals with diverse abilities.
- Reasonable accommodations will be provided to ensure that students with disabilities can participate fully in academic programs.
- Faculty and staff are equipped with inclusive teaching practices and know how to support students with diverse learning needs.
- The institution conducts awareness programs to educate the campus community about disability issues and foster a culture of inclusivity.

This policy will be periodically reviewed to assess its effectiveness and relevance. Amendments may be made to the policy as necessary to align with changing circumstances and regulatory requirements.
